

Reva Prakash was associated with Lafarge India as Sr Vice President HR for over a decade, and subsequently for a brief period continued as their HR Advisor for Asia. As she would like to take her expertise in HR to the next level to diversify her bouquet of industry segments, she has set up her own HR Consultancy organisation. Reva is a renowned figure in the HR industry and has over 30 years of rich, professional experience across manufacturing and service sectors. At Lafarge, Reva has played a strategic role as an HR business partner in India and outside of India.

During her tenure with Lafarge India, Reva has contributed immensely towards establishing and developing innovative HR practices in India. She worked successfully for Lafarge India on many fronts like People Development, Organisation Development, Succession Planning and Employee Relations. She has developed several tools for Talent mapping and potential identification through Leadership workshops and Development Centers. Her ability to get the best out of people in an encouraging and motivating way has helped develop strong progressive teams across Lafarge India.

Reva is a Certified Executive Coach and has done several Coaching engagements for leadership levels. She has also pioneered initiatives which are still showcased as Best Practices within the Lafarge Group as well as at a national level by achieving several awards and accolades at individual and Company level. She has been invited as speaker on several HR platforms like Marcus Evans, World HRD Congress etc to name a few.

I extend my very best wishes to Reva to scale higher peaks in this new venture which will broaden her horizons further.
